Thoughts from Matthew Henry

- ▶ Genesis 2:7
- ▶ Man was made of the small dust, such as is on the surface of the earth. The soul was not made of the earth, as the body: pity then that it should cleave to the earth, and mind earthly things. To God we must shortly give an account, how we have employed these souls; and if it be found that we have lost them, though it were to gain the world, we are undone for ever! Fools despise their own souls, by caring for their bodies before their souls.

Could it be?

- ▶ Our attitude as a Christ-centered pharmacist should be to care for souls
 - ▶ As a pharmacist, do we even think that way?
 - ▶ Are we taught that way?
 - ▶ How do you care for souls in a pharmacy?

A "Calling"

- ▶ What are Christians called to?
 - ▶ Ephesians 4:1

 - ▶ 1 Corinthians 1:26-27
 - ▶ Romans 11:29
 - ▶ 1 Corinthians 1:9

The word "calling," or in its Latin form "vocation," had long been used in reference to the sacred ministry and the religious orders. Today, the term has become commonplace, another synonym for a profession or job, as in "vocational training." But behind the term is the notion that every legitimate kind of work or social function is a distinct "calling" from God, requiring unique God-given gifts, skills, and talents. God himself is active in everyday human labor, family responsibilities, and social interactions.
